Boundary Review Task Force

We need your help recruiting parents and guardians for the Boundary Review Task Force. We are looking for a diverse cross-section of our school communities. If elected, members of the Task Force will:

- Attend weekly meetings from December - February
- Review boundary adjustment scenarios
- Consider community input
- Identify a preferred adjustment scenario

The application is available on our website along with additional information. Paper applications are attached to this email. Questions may be directed to the Assistant Superintendent's Office 541-766-4700.

Applications are due by November 11, notification will occur on November 15.
